

Winter Wonderland returns to The Ben in West Palm this November

Megan Hayes catches up with the General Manager of The Ben in West Palm Beach to talk about all the new things people can enjoy at this year's Winter Wonderland

The Ben Hotel, Autograph Collection, in downtown West Palm Beach is bringing back its popular Winter Wonderland for a second season starting November 1st!

The exciting event drew in more than 30,000 skaters for its inaugural year in 2024. This year, it is back and bigger than ever! You can expect to see an expanded real-ice rink, the debut of a Holiday Tree Forest created with local nonprofits, and weekly themed activations like Live Music Saturdays, Santa Sundays, and Ugly Sweater Day.

Opening day festivities on Nov. 1 include a curling match with the Loggerhead Curling Club and a ribbon-cutting ceremony with Mayor Keith James. Guests can also enjoy Aspen-style chalets, retail pop-ups, and a full-service holiday bar with hot chocolate, s'mores, and seasonal treats.

Winter Wonderland is free for non-skaters and ticketed for ice skating. It runs daily through January 4, 2026.
